WAIPAHU JAPANESE ARE DISCHARGED FROM CUSTODY

The five Waipahu Japanese who were arrested Saturday night for detaining another Japanese who desired to return to work on the plantation, were discharged late Sunday night. After questioning the men, the authorities came to the conclusion that their act was prompted more by ignorance than anything else. The courts will be asked to enforce the injunction against picketing and a repetition of last Saturday night's actions will be dealt with severely.

AMUSEMENTS

Exception may be taken to Hilo horse-racing but none can be raised against the singers of the Rainy City.

By the steamer Mauna Kea last Saturday arrived Miss Helen Kaaiwela and Mrs. Miriam Kalolena, whose business in Honolulu is to make arrangements for a grand concert and dance to be given on Saturday the 31st inst.

The hall where the entertainment will be held has not yet been selected but a choice will be made in a day or so and full particulars announced.

Mrs. Kalolena and Miss Kaaiwela are two of the best-known singers on the big island. When the steamer arrives next Saturday they will be joined by Miss Lilia Loa, Miss Mary Keawe and Mrs. Lizzie Spalding. Miss Niece Kahaui will complete the aggregation of vocal talent which will delight Honoluluans three weeks from now.

The program will consist of solos, duets, quintets and sextets, and beside singing, the young ladies will illustrate the words and spirit of the songs by clever acting.

A local quintet club will furnish music for the dance which will follow the concert, and will also render selections during the concert.

The program will be as follows: Kauakanihena—Sextet. Sweet Violet—Helen Kaaiwela and Lilia Loa.

Noho no Puna—Quintet. Sweet Kiss—Lizzie Spalding and Mary Keawe.

Waipio—Trio. Kalena—Quintet. Makeneke—Helen Kaaiwela.

Ekolu Oi Maia Uka—Trio. Sweet Rosebud—Helen Kaaiwela and Lizzie Spalding.

Kaulila—Quintet. Eapopulama—Miriam Kalolena.

Kuu Ipo Kuu Lei—Miriam Kalolena and Helen Kaaiwela.

Waihihihi—Quintet. Tiaini—Miriam Kalolena and Helen Kaaiwela.

Manu Oo—Quintet.

An Exciting Capture.

No more exciting scene has ever been thrown from a motion picture machine than "The Wolf Hunt," shown at the Park Theater last night. Every incident in the chase is brought before the audience in a way that admits no question of its authenticity. There were moments when the audience stood and shouted its approval of the bravery shown by Abernathy, so real was the scene brought out. "The Wolf Hunt" will be repeated tonight and the musical program will be increased by several numbers.
